Mr. Arkell Is Honored

Many Fetes Are Held by Sojourners at Well-Known
Resort Among the Peaks

Special Dispatch to The Tribune
MANCHESTER, Vt., Aug. 26.—The twenty-second annual golf tournament for the Orvis Cup and other prizes at Ekwonok Country Club will occupy the attention of the resort colony from next Wednesday through the week. The trophies, which number seventeen or more for the various divisions, and the special competitions are given by Mrs. George Orvis. The program of the event calls for a qualifying round of eighteen holes to be played on Wednesday, with a gold medal for low score in the qualifying round. There will be four divisions of sixteen each for match play, elimination rounds and the losers in the first round of match play will continue in four consolation flights. On Friday afternoon there will be a special best ball, four ball, handicap competition and on Saturday there will be an eighteen hole, medal, handicap competition for all excepting those playing in the final matches of the several divisions.

The blue and white Yale banner flew from the flag-staff at Point-O-View, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett Arkell, over last Sunday in honor of the presence of a few classmates of 1886 of Mr. Arkell, who came to help their host celebrate his birthday. On Saturday evening, just before the birthday dinner, there was unveiled a bronze sun-dial. Mrs. Arkell's birthday gift to Mr. Arkell, uniquely modeled after the golfer addressing a ball. On close inspection it developed that the model was none other than Mr. Robert Appleton, who had, during the winter, posed for the sculptor, Amory Simons, of New York. The shaft of the golf driver forms the shadow-maker of the sun-dial.

Mr. George E. Eliot, Yale 1886, of Clinton, Conn., made the prize-giving speech for Mrs. Arkell and Mr. Arkell responded. Other classmates present included Mr. Appleton and Mr. N. M. Goodlett, both of New York. Guests at the dinner also included Mr. Marshall Whitlatch, Mrs. Appleton, Miss Parker Smith, Miss Susanne S. Grigsby and Mr. Alex Girard. There were also present as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Grant, James Grant, Miss Mary B. Gleason, Mr. L. B. Malone and Malcolm Graham.

Stitches Tell Secrets—as in These Boys' School Suits at $10.75

MOTHERS KNOW how any sewing machine will sew coarse or fine—make stitches far apart or close together. And they know which sort of stitching holds strongest and longest.

That is just one of the good things to notice about these splendid new Suits here at $10.75—how the stitches are put in to hold.

Boys' clothes pull out of shape as much because the stitching is not always firm as that the fabrics are too loosely woven.

See the stitching and the fabrics in these—and improve the opportunity by doing school outfitting while such Suits can be had at so reasonable a sum.

Made with pleated coats or plain coats and with flapped or plain patch pockets. All the good school-going colors to choose from.

Sizes from 8 to 18 years. Splendid value—$10.75.

Loeser's—Main Floor.

Pearl Pendant Earrings 89c. Instead of $1.25

FASCINATING new French Pearl Earrings, which will be quickly chosen at this special price. Very large pearl balls are suspended from fine link chains, some plain chains and others with two and three tiny pearls between; button pearls for lobe of ear.

Loeser's—Main Floor, Novelty Jewelry Store.

Corsets—Clearance Priced $1 to $2.95

ANY WOMAN who wants an inexpensive Corset to finish out the summer at the seashore will find splendid values in this assortment. Well-known makes—

Warner's Rustproof, Loeser Special, C. B., Willowbone, R. & G.

Made of pink brocade and plain materials, in splendid fitting models. Sizes up to 36.

Loeser's—Second Floor.

Women's Silk Umbrellas at $4.98

Blue, Green, Brown, Purple, Garnet, Black

JUST HERE are some handsome new Silk Umbrellas that offer splendid value. The coverings are fine quality tape edge taffeta over paragon frames. The handles are of leather with rings and side straps. The tips and ferrules are bakelite. Each Umbrella fitted with a silk case.
